THE BEST OF 2008

Breaking Dawn by Stephenie Meyer—the 4th book in the Twilight Saga brings the series to an excellent close. If you or your teenage daughters have not yet read the series, you want want to start with the first book—Twilight

The Story of Edgar Sawtelle by David Wroblewski—this debut novel has been on the NYT Best Sellers list for over 6 months and was Oprah's Pick #62. It appears to be a must read.

When You Are Engulfed In Flames by David Sedaris—reading these short stories is like watching the author think and once again David Sedaris has written a group of essays that will keep you laughing.

Nothing to Lose by Lee Child—in this new novel Jack Reacher (Child's main character) finds himself at war with a town called Despair, whose leaders first want him gone, then dead. A must read.

Duma Key by Stephen King—as he returns to his form of horror King has created another classic Gothic tale of terror as only he can.

Kid's Corner—

Come see what's new in the kid's corner!!! We are looking for readers who would like to write a review of a children's book or a young adult book for this section of our Newsletter. In the meantime, stop in to visit us and take a look at "Sixth Inning" by James Preller. Mr. Preller is a local author who is the creator of the "Jigsaw Jones" series along with several other books.
